'The Way Home' stars ponder what pond will do in season 2

✓ Hallmark Channel's marvelous mystery returns Sunday for season 2

"Three generations of women embark on an enlightening journey to find their way back to each other and learn important lessons about their family's past."

Sounds like a typical Hallmark Channel production, right?

Well, this one has a catch – and it's a juicy doozy.

Time travel.

At wits' end when her teenage daughter, Alice (Sadie Laflamme-Snow), is kicked out of school – on the same day she's lost her job at the newspaper – Kat (Chyler Leigh) unexpectedly receives a letter from her estranged mother, Del (Andie MacDowell), and decides to return to her childhood home in Port Haven, Canada.

Alice, meanwhile, unimpressed with farm life – and furious with her now-separated mother and father – runs away, and finds a mysterious pond at the back of her grandmother's land. She takes a bracelet gifted to her by Kat and angrily tosses it into the water. Immediately regretting that decision, and desperate to reclaim the jewelry, Alice falls in as she reaches out for the keepsake. Upon entry, she quickly discovers this is no ordinary underwater experience.

Gripped by the vegetation and struggling to find air, Alice is rescued – pulled out by a teenage girl ... who turns out to be her mother, of all people – oh, and the year is 1999.

Press Release

Grammy Award-nominated, multi-Platinum-selling band Bush will celebrate its 30th anniversary with an extensive North American headline tour: "Bush – Loaded: The Greatest Hits Tour." The trek will kick off on July 26 in Bend, Oregon, and include a show at the Artpark Outdoor Amphitheater in Lewiston on Aug. 17. Jerry Cantrell and Candlebox will be the special guests on all dates. Additional guests will be announced.

General on-sale tickets for Artpark will be available starting at 10 a.m. Friday, Jan. 19. Tickets range from $99.50 for reserved seating (numbered chairs provided) to $89.50 for front of stage (standing room only) to $39.50 for general admission (no carry-in chairs allowed). Ticket prices include a facility fee. Additional fees apply for online orders.

Tickets will be available for purchase online at ticketmaster.com. The Artpark box office is currently closed for in-person purchases until further notice due to construction on the Artpark grounds. Visit artpark.net for more information.

The English rock band formed in London in 1992. In 1994, Bush found immediate success outside the U.K. with the release of debut album, "Sixteen Stone," which is certified six-times multi-Platinum by the RIAA. They went on to become one of the most commercially successful rock bands of the 1990s, selling over 10 million records in the U.S. and 24 million records worldwide.

With over 1 billion streams and a procession of No. 1 singles, the band – comprising Gavin Rossdale (vocals, guitar); Chris Traynor (guitar); Corey Britz (bass); and Nik Hughes (drums) – stands tall as rock outliers whose imprint only widens as the years pass.

"Loaded: The Greatest Hits 1994-2023" (Round Hill Records), Bush's first-ever greatest hits collection, provides an expansive view of their incredible legacy with 21 tracks spanning nearly 30 years – from their breakthrough hit, "Everything's Zen," to their latest single, "Nowhere To Go But Everywhere," which is already within the Top 20 on Billboard's Mainstream Rock Airplay chart.

The band also won acclaim for its 2023 tour, with Billboard noting, "(Rossdale) seems driven to connect with his audience and remind them that Bush is not just a heritage act, but very much alive and well and making new music."

Additional 2024 events at Artpark currently on sale include: Los Lonely Boys (May 31); Sarah McLachlan (June 18); Bonnie Raitt (June 21); the opera "TOSCA" (July 12, 14); and O.A.R. (Aug. 27)
