

St. Stephen School students take drug-free pledge

Students at St. Stephen School on Grand Island said, "No to drugs!" during Red Ribbon Week, Oct. 21-25. Middle school students shared information about this week and the importance of pledging to be drug-free over the morning announcements each day. They made "Life is a Movie, Film Drug Free" posters, wore red ribbons, and were visited by officer Cali and his canine partner, Arno, of the New York State Park Police for an information K-9 presentation. Arno is named after fallen firefighter Jason Arno, who sacrificed his life fighting a fire in Buffalo.

Halloween

St. Stephen School held its first ever Halloween dance for students in pre-K to grade 4. Students and their parents were invited to come in costume for an evening of fun! Activities including skull tic-tac-toe, a Halloween dance party, spooky photo booths, scratch art, creepy popcorn hands, and a pizza party! The event was a blast and had a great turnout.
