The Flaming Lips

Artpark & Company Press Releases

As part of Artpark & Company's 50th anniversary season, The Flaming Lips will perform the entire "Yoshimi Battles The Pink Robots" album – and more – at the Artpark Amphitheater at 7:30 p.m. Monday, July 22.

More About

The Flaming Lips

Released in 2002, "Yoshimi Battles the Pink Robots" remains the commercial high-water mark in The Flaming Lips' wild, four-decade journey, giving the Grammy Award-winners their first RIAA-Certified Gold record. As the eagerly awaited follow-up to 1999's masterwork, "The Soft Bulletin," "Yoshimi" proved singer/guitarist Wayne Coyne and multi-instrumentalist Steven Drozd had yet another masterpiece in them.

"Yoshimi Battles the Pink Robots" is a sci-fi-themed quasi-concept album that cast The Flaming Lips' most playful and profound songs to date in a wondrous swirl of ambient electronics, digital beats and psychedelic splendor. The record yielded the band's top-streamed track, "Do You Realize??" (a timeless stargazing anthem that, in 2009, was named the Official Rock Song of the band's native Oklahoma) and also landed the Lips their first-ever Grammy Award for the cosmic album-closing instrumental "Approaching Pavonis Mons by Balloon (Utopia Planitia)."

This concert is presented by Live Nation and Artpark.

Front-of-stage (standing), reserved seating and general admission tickets go on sale at 10 a.m. today online at ticketmaster.com or over the phone by calling the Artpark & Company box office at 716-754-4375.

The physical box office is closed for in-person purchases, until further notice, due to construction on the Artpark grounds. Tickets will not be sold in person at the box office; they are only available online or via the phone.

No carry-in chairs will be allowed, but blankets are permitted on the grass areas.

More About Norah Jones

Jones emerged on the world stage with the 2002 release of "Come Away With Me," her self-described "moody little record" that introduced a singular new voice and grew into a global phenomenon, sweeping the 2003 Grammy Awards (including Album of the Year, Record of the Year and Best New Artist). Since then, Jones has become a nine-time Grammy-winner, sold more than 52 million albums, and her songs have been streamed 10 billion times worldwide.

She has released a series of critically acclaimed and commercially successful solo albums, including "Feels Like Home" (2004), "Not Too Late" (2007), "The Fall" (2009), "Little Broken Hearts" (2012), "Day Breaks" (2016), "Pick Me Up Off The Floor" (2020), the live album "Til We Meet Again" (2021), her holiday album "I Dream Of Christmas" (2021), and "Visions" (2024).

In 2022, Jones launched her podcast, "Norah Jones Is Playing Along," which features candid conversations and impromptu musical collaborations with some of her favorite musicians.

More on Mavis Staples

Hailed by NPR as "one of America's defining voices of freedom and peace," Staples is the kind of once-in-a-generation artist whose impact on music and culture would be difficult to overstate. She's both a Blues and a Rock & Roll hall of famer; a civil rights icon; a three-time Grammy Award-winner (with a Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award); a chart-topping soul, gospel and R&B pioneer; a National Arts Awards Lifetime Achievement recipient; named to Rolling Stone's "Top 200 Singers of All Time" (No. 46); and a Kennedy Center honoree.

She marched with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., performed at John F. Kennedy's inauguration, and sang in Barack Obama's White House. Over the past few decades alone, she's collaborated with everyone from Prince and Bob Dylan to Arcade Fire and Bon Iver, blown away countless festivalgoers from Newport Folk and Glastonbury to Lollapalooza and Bonnaroo, and graced the airwaves and the Grammys.

Additional 2024 Artpark & Company events include: Gary Clark Jr. (May 25); Los Lonely Boys (May 31); Sarah McLachlan (June 18); Bonnie Raitt (June 21); The opera "TOSCA" (July 12, 14); Train (July 19); Bush (Aug. 17); and O.A.R. (Aug. 27).
