

30th annual Nancy Price Memorial Run set for May 10

Registrations for the 30th annual Nancy Price Memorial Run are underway, with the race date set for May 10 this year.

While the race has historically been managed by Youngstown Recreation, this year a new nonprofit is heading up the charge. Led by Christine Rath, the Friends of Youngstown has a stated mission to revitalize, improve, and ensure long-term sustainability of the Village of Youngstown.

The race honors Nancy Price, the former recreation director who succumbed to cancer in 1994, and is open to participants ages 14 and under, up to seniors ages 75 and older. Proceeds from the event go toward the annual Nancy & Vicki Price Memorial Scholarships, which are given out to graduates from the area who possess the values Nancy held and who are active in the community.

The 5K run/walk will start at 6:30 p.m. and finish in front of the Youngstown Volunteer Fire Hall in the Village of Youngstown. It features a scenic course through the Village of Youngstown and Fort Niagara State Park. The ½-mile kids fun run starts at Veteran's Park and will take place at 6 p.m.

Online registration is open and continues right to the start of the race on May 10. Race categories include 14 and under; 15-19; 20-24; 25-29; 30-34; 35-39; 40-44; 45-49; 50-54; 55-59; 60-64; 65-69; 70-74; and 75 and older. The race is organized by Race Management Solutions

Signup costs are as follows: The ½-mile kids fun run is $10 though race day; the 5K run/walk, for ages 18 and younger, is $15 presale or $20 on race day; and the 5K run/walk (ages 19 and older) is $20 presale or $25 on race day. Individuals who register by April 22 will be guaranteed a Dri FIT race-day shirt.

A virtual option is available again this year for those unable to make the trip to Youngstown.

LCA seeks participants for 'LEWISTON PORCHFEST UNPLUGGED'

The Lewiston Council on the Arts is accepting applications for musical acts to perform at the "Lewiston Porchfest Unplugged" event, which will coincide with the annual GardenFest, from noon to 5 p.m. June 15.

"Porchfest" is a music festival in which musicians set up on a porch (or deck, driveway or other place), and those passing by – on their way to an open garden, perhaps! – are treated to a concert.

"We are excited to work with the Garden Club to give local musicians a performance opportunity and to enhance the garden tour experience of the Garden Festival," LCA Executive Director Maria Fortuna Dean said.

The LCA is accepting online applications from bands and solo artists of all ages and abilities who perform various genres including folk, jazz, rock, blues, reggae, classical, R&B, rap, bluegrass, pop and others. Applicants are required to complete the online application and to submit a link to a representative video of their act. Applicants will be reviewed by a panel, and a limited number of performers will be invited to participate.

Acoustic instruments are encouraged where possible. Sound from performances should operate at a level where it is not able to be heard at other "Porchfest" locations.

All participants are required to participate as volunteers, and all give freely of their time, talents, resources and hospitality as a gift to the community and visitors. Musicians are free to put out a tip jar or sell their music and merchandise.

Only those bands/musicians who have applied and been accepted by the Lewiston Council on the Arts and who display their LCA "Porchfest" permit will be permitted to perform.

Would you like to be a "Porchfest" host? Here's what is needed:

An outdoor area (porch, driveway, yard, balcony, garage) that has easy access to a power supply.

All porch hosts will be required to either have a covered porch or provide the band with a canopy or some other protection from the elements.

The location must be visible to the general public who may be walking by.

Applications for musicians and hosts can be found at artscouncil.org
