Led by Argentinian conductor Fernanda Lastra, this world-class orchestra is playing a fun concert of favorite, familiar tunes. The concert is free. Bring a lawn chair or blanket and enjoy the wonderful music in historic Lewiston!

Lewiston Art Festival

Saturday, Aug. 10 (10 a.m. to 6 p.m.), and Sunday, Aug. 11 (10 a.m. to 5 p.m.), along Center Street in the Village of Lewiston

At Lewiston's preeminent art event, explore the works of acclaimed and emerging artists. Organized by the Lewiston Council on the Arts, this event is highly popular with locals and tourists alike. In fact, the art festival is one of the region's biggest and most iconic. For over half a century, it has gathered artists from throughout Western New York. With more than 20,000 original works to discover, you are sure to find something you love. Plenty of food vendors and entertainers will on site, too.

Northwest Jazz Festival

Friday, Aug. 23 (5-10:30 p.m.), and Saturday, Aug. 24 (noon to 10:30 p.m.) along Center Street in Lewiston

The 2024 Northwest Jazz Festival is thrilled to announce a special tribute to the Great American Songbook at this year's event. With five stages throughout the grounds, the highlight of the festival continues to shine on the main stage. Kicking off the festivities on Friday is renowned New York City jazz pianist Pete Malinverni. A Lewiston native, Malinverni's performance marks a homecoming celebration not to be missed. Later in the evening, rising jazz vocalist Anaïs Reno will grace the stage, enchanting listeners with her magnetic interpretations of jazz standards. Reno will be joined by the Pete Malinverni Trio and esteemed jazz guitarist Peter Bernstein. Continuing the celebration on Saturday, the festival presents a creative program by the Jazz at the Ballroom organization. Visit www.lewistonjazz.com.

Niagara County Peach Festival

Thursday, Sept. 5 (5-10 p.m.); Friday, Sept. 6 (5-11 p.m.); and Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 7-8 (11 a.m. to 11 p.m.) in Lewiston's Academy Park; plus a parade Saturday along Center Street

This annual event, hosted by the Kiwanis Club of Lewiston, is a fundraiser earning monies to be donated to local groups and organizations throughout the year. The Peach Festival offers a full midway, plus games, food, music, dance performances and the Peach Queen Scholarship Pageant. For more, visit www.LewistonPeachFestival.org.

Harvest & Hops Festival

Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 28-29

10 a.m. to 5 p.m. along Center Street in Lewiston

Lewiston's premier fall festival features more than 100 artisan vendors, craft beer and a farmers market. The street is closed allowing plenty of space for visitors to walk freely amongst vendors, and navigate through two full days of country faire-type shopping. It is hosted by the Upward Niagara Chamber of Commerce, Brickyard Brewing Company and Modern Disposal Services.
