

Welch endorses Conde and Fittante for Village Board

As Mayor of the Village of Lewiston, I ask residents to come out and vote on Tuesday, June 18, at the Red Brick, from noon to 9 p.m. This year, we have two excellent candidates running for village trustee – Nick Conde and Jim Fittante – whom I wholeheartedly endorse.

Incumbent Nick Conde has been a trustee for 12 years and, prior to that, he served on the Zoning Board of Appeals, Recreation Board and as zoning officer. His experience and expertise as a mechanical designer can be seen throughout the village on various projects such as the Center Street streetscape, all-inclusive playground, and continuing development of the waterfront. Because of his knowledge in code enforcement, Nick is an invaluable asset with the enforcement process.

Jim Fittante has served on the Historic Planning Commission for several years, and his work as an architect can be seen in most major projects throughout the village. The historic Frontier House restoration, the Brickyard Pub, the BBC, Stone House, Brewed and Bottle, Battle Flag Tavern, just to name a few. Jim is committed to the historic preservation of our village, preserving our heritage for future generations but, at the same time, has an understanding and commitment to our businesses to keep our village growing.

I strongly encourage residents to vote for Nick Conde and Jim Fittante. They are both committed to serving our community and keeping our village thriving and inviting for years to come.

Geiben urges vote for Fittante

I have been an elected official for both Village of Lewiston as well as the Town of Lewiston and, when a strong candidate like Jim Fittante is running for Village of Lewiston trustee, it is my honor to support him.

I have known Jim since his high school years at Lewiston-Porter and so proud of the professional architect Jim has become. Jim is, beyond a doubt, an excellent candidate for the residents of the Village of Lewiston. Jim's expertise and knowledge in architecture in the various projects in Lewiston, along with his commitment to promote and maintain Lewiston's historic character, is a testament to his commitment to our community. Jim realizes the historic value of the Village of Lewiston, but also embraces the fact we need business to keep our community thriving in the right direction. Jim Fittante is exactly what this board needs at this time.

As I always told my students, when evaluating candidates for your vote, look at what they have done for our community to date. Everyone has heard, "If I'm elected, I plan on doing. ..." I ask you to look at what Jim has brought to the table now, and what he can add to the current Village Board once he is elected.

One does not have to look too far to see Jim's contributions: Historic Planning Commission, executive board member of Upward Niagara Chamber of Commerce, and an active member of Moose Lodge 584, to name a few. On a professional level, the Frontier House renovations, The Brickyard Pub, the BBC, the Stone House, Lewiston Event Center, Brewed and Bottled, Battle Flag Tavern, Niagara Falls Country Club Banquet Hall, and many, many village resident homes.

Jim is involved here in the Village of Lewiston; he has presented several major projects to the Village Board, the Planning Board and Historic Preservation Commission; his knowledge, skills and experience has prepared him to be an excellent village trustee.

I ask that you come out to vote for Jim Fittante for village trustee on Tuesday, June 18, at the Red Brick Village Hall. Jim Fittante is a man of integrity and professionalism, and will be a true asset to our community.

Collesano is an inspiration

Lewiston is fortunate to have talented and qualified candidates running in Tuesday's village election. Leandra Collesano is a candidate whom I've had the pleasure of working with as a fellow volunteer for many years. Her dedication to our community and her tireless efforts to improve our local culture and quality of life have not only had a positive and dramatic impact, but have been an inspiration to all who know her. Her business background, combined with her leadership and organizational skills, have garnered the respect and admiration from both her professional and volunteer colleagues.

Extending Leandra's public service as a village trustee would serve the citizens and taxpayers well. That's why I'm proud to support her and encourage you to cast your ballot for Leandra on Tuesday.

Lee Simonson

Says Collesano is deeply committed to Lewiston

I write to express my enthusiastic support for the candidacy of Leandra Collesano for election as a trustee in the Village Board election to be held next Tuesday, June 18.

Having owned an insurance agency in the village for over 30 years and lived in or near the village for that entire time, I am well aware of Leandra's commitment to her hometown.

Leandra is deeply committed to the well-being of our community, and shows that commitment as a business owner and active member of local organizations, including Kiwanis Club and the Historical Association of Lewiston. When she volunteers, she commits herself fully to the task, and no task is too small or too hard.

In her business endeavors, she is honest, fair and forthright. In her love of the Village of Lewiston, I know of no one with more loyalty, dedication and passion for Lewiston.

Leandra also possesses keen good government instincts. Her platform includes:

- ✓ Support of a transparent village government that maintains an open dialog with residents and business owners alike.

- ✓ Honoring our historical past while encouraging uniform growth for the future.

- ✓ Calling for fiscal responsibility, while keeping up essential services and providing programs for the resident public and visitors alike.

I wholeheartedly urge village voters to elect Leandra Collesano as a village trustee on June 18.

Margaret M. Toohey

Village trustworthy

I have known Leandra Collesano since she was little girl growing up on Plain Street, in our Village of Lewiston. Leandra has so much to offer our community as a village trustee. She will use her skillsets, career background and knowledge to keep our village a treasured place to live, work and visit.

Leandra's dedication to this community is shown through her volunteer work with the Kiwanis Club of Lewiston, and the Historic Association of Lewiston. Owning and running a small business here in the village on Center Street, she saw first-hand the possibilities for our businesses.

Leandra's vision is to honor the Village of Lewiston's rich historical past while encouraging trending growth for the future. She looks forward to serving the residents of the village she resides in and proudly calls home.

Leandra cares about the future of our hometown. Please vote for her on June 18.
