New Town Hall action possible

TOWN BOARD ACTION on a new town hall may soon move beyond the discussion and planning stage Monday evening when Supervisor Raymond P. Griffin proposes to call for a vote on a site for the proposed building.

The board may even give favorable consideration to authorize engineering work on plans prepared by Architect Jacob Fruechtbaum at a cost of $5,000.

Town officials have always agreed that new headquarters are needed, but controversy over choice of a location has delayed bringing the project to a point where a public referendum can decide the issue.

Whether to build on the present town hall site on Baseline Road or purchase land elsewhere has been the question tossed around for at least five years.

GI Squirts travel North

JANUARY PROVED TO BE a real experience for the town Squirt travel hockey team, which began the month after a long holiday layoff with an impressive 5-4 win over the Saints at Fireman's Park in Depew. Subsequent losses to first-place Bisons, Swords and Regals tarnished the new year, but didn't keep the best from shining through the last of the month.

"We took our team across the pond for our first series ever with the Cawthra Park Hockey Association in Mississauga, Ontario," recounts Coach Jarzyniecki.

This trip will undoubtedly be the highlight of the boys' season. The Friendship Series was played on Jan. 26 and 27 at the Mississauga Valley Recreation Center and Cawthra Arena, respectively. Our Canadian neighbors rolled out the carpet to welcome us. Both national anthems were played prior to each game. Player introductions and a gift exchange followed. The boys had a real experience staying with the boys on the Cawthra team. Many friendships were made that may last for years for boys and parents alike."

Cawthra proved to be a formidable foe (first in their division),"but our boys rose to the competition level and probably played their best hockey of the season," the coach says. "Cawthra won both games and 4-1, but our boys earned their respect in both.

Mark Bradell and Sean Carroll were chosen as outstanding players and received medallions for their effort.
