The Lewiston Council on the Arts premieres its all-new "Ghost Walk" this weekend.

It explained "Sailors, Soldiers and Saloons" tells tales both tall and true, ghastly and grim, mystical, musical ... and murderous! Theatrical guides take travelers from the gazebo to the graveyard, on an eerie adventure back in time to meet those who walked these roads before us, who were "only passing through," but who met a very different fate than they had planned.

"We're very excited to continue this beloved Lewiston tradition," LCA Executive Director Maria Fortuna Dean remarked. "There are so many stories in our rich history, and we're looking forward to sharing them in this new production."

Just be sure to bring a flashlight - it gets dark early in the graveyard. ...

Show times and ticketing information can be found on the LCA website: <https://www.artscouncil.org/events/marble-orchard-historic-walks>.
