Sunday night 'Ghost Walks' rescheduled to Halloween night

The Lewiston Council on the Arts has announced a schedule change for its all-new "Ghost Walk" titled "Sailors, Soldiers and Saloons"

A press release stated, "Due to the high probability of storms all day this Sunday, both the 4 and 7 p.m. walks have been rescheduled to Halloween night, Tuesday, Oct. 31, at 7:30 p.m."

All advanced sale tickets from Oct. 29 will be honored, and tickets will be also available at the door. Contact the Lewiston Council on the Arts with any questions (716-754-0166).

Saturday's "Ghost Walk" is taking place as planned.

Herschell Carrousel Factory Museum lantern tours and 'Cookies & Carrousel'

The Herschell Carrousel Factory Museum has announced will host two adult events this holiday season:

- Lantern tours, from 7-9 p.m. Friday, Oct. 27, and Saturday, Oct. 28. Join Director Ian Sepala in an after-hours after-dark tour of the museum by lantern light. A press release stated, "Hear stories never told before, the scandals, the tragedies, the gruesome take on historic amusement."

This event is for 16-plus only. Tickets are $25 per person or $40 for two people.

- Join Fairy Cakes Cupcakery at the Herschell Carrousel Factory Museum for "Cookies and Carrousel" from 6-8 p.m. Friday, Dec. 1. Each attendee will be given four cookies and the Fairy Cakes Cupcakery staff will go step by step to show guests how to create four wintry designs.

This event is for 16-plus only. Tickets are $50 per person or $90 for two people.

Contact the museum at info@carrouselmuseum.org for more information.

Power Authority to host 'Hallow-GREEN Spooktacular' at Niagara Power Vista

Halloween event to include electric vehicle ride-and-drive

The New York Power Authority will hold its annual free "Hollow-GREEN Spooktacular" between 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 28, at the Niagara Power Vista, the visitors center for the Niagara Power Project.

Guests can participate in a costume contest that includes prizes for winners, and enjoy Halloween-themed games and crafts. Additionally, visitors can register to test drive multiple electric vehicles during the event at www.nypa.evnavigator.com/lewisston. Free pumpkins will be available to the first 300 children to arrive.

Children up to age 15 are invited to dress in their most creative garb for a costume contest that will occur between 10 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. Contest winners will be announced and rewarded with science prizes at 3 p.m. Costume contest participants will be judged by age in four categories: infant to 3 years old; 4 to 9 years old; and 10 to 15 years old. An additional award will be given to the contestant with the best overall costume.

Volunteers from Niagara Falls High School Student Community Services will be in attendance providing games and treats. Visitors can also enjoy face painting and balloon art, courtesy of the New York State Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation's Interpretive Center.

Celebrate Halloween in Youngstown

Families are invited to celebrate Halloween up north in Youngstown on Saturday with a number of spooky and fun activities hosted the Recreation Department.

The day opens with 11:30 a.m. registration at the Red Brick Village Center for the annual kids parade in the Main-Lockport street business district. Look for goodies by local businesses and prizes awarded to the little ones, including for Best Costume, Best Halloween Royalty, Best Family Costume and Best Trunk Decoration.

Also taking place will be a trunk or treat in the Red Brick parking lot on Lockport and Third streets. Participants are invited to "decorate your trunk and hand out goodies for the kids." Those interested in joining in the fun are asked to preregister their vehicle and arrive for setup by 11 a.m., with handout-outs beginning at 11:30 a.m.
