Village Department of Public Works brightens Lewiston streets

On Tuesday, the Village of Lewiston Department of Public Works strung holiday lights along Academy Park, on Center Street, and into the Red Brick Municipal Building grounds. Superintendent Larry Wills expressed thanks to the Town of Lewiston for providing funds to purchase all-new LED lights. Wills said the DPW replaced approximately 20,000 bulbs. Wills (far right) is shown with DPW laborers Jennifer Rossman and Nate Meigs.

“When I own a home, I’ll invite the entire family over.”

Together we can make it possible. Visit mtb.com/firsthouse or call 1-800-936-0969 to get started today.
