Cub Scouts from Pack 829 surround Niagara County Legislator Irene Myers as she presents a check to Cubmaster Charlotte Clark for the pack's program year at Youngstown Presbyterian Church.

Myers secures funds for Scouting programs in Youngstown Niagara County Legislator Irene Myers presented $1,500 in funding to Scouting programs in Youngstown on Oct. 16 during an awards presentation to the Scouts, leaders and parents at the Youngstown Presbyterian Church. Cub Scout Pack 829 and Boy Scout Troop 829 each received $750 from the Niagara County Legislature.

"We are so grateful to Legislator Myers and the Niagara County Legislature for their financial support," said Charlotte Clark, Cubmaster of Pack 829. "For the Cub Scouts, these funds help pay for handbooks, awards, campouts and outings that help make our program the best it can be."

Nicholas Wesley, Troop 829's senior patrol leader AND the group's elected youth leader, spoke to the legislator during the presentation. "Thank you for coming here to present this check to us," he said. "We sincerely appreciate your continued support of our program for the second year in a row. The money helps us plan new adventures and update old equipment. It truly makes a difference, so thank you!"

"Legislator Myers' support of Scouting goes beyond funding," Clark said. "When she talks to the Scouts, she reminds them that they are our community's future leaders, and that Scouting will help them grow on the right path. It's important for our youth to hear messages like this, because it plants the seeds of leadership and community service in them."

Youngstown Cub Scout Pack 829 is open to girls and boys in kindergarten to fifth grade, and currently has 41 registered Scouts. It meets twice monthly on Mondays at the Youngstown Presbyterian Church. Information is available at www.facebook.com/Pack829, www.beascout.org, or by emailing BeAScoutInYoungstown@gmail.com.

Youngstown Boy Scout Troop 829 is open to boys in sixth grade through age 18 and currently has 15 registered Scouts. The troop meets weekly on Tuesdays in the basement of St. Bernard R.C. Church. More information is available at www.facebook.com/YOUNGSTOWNTROOP829 and www.beascout.org.

'Groundbreaking documentary' to be screened at Historic Lewiston Opera Hall

The CREATE Project will present the premiere of "Tradition, Trauma, & Tenderness" at the Historic Lewiston Opera Hall, 732 Center St., on Saturday, Nov. 11. There is a $5 admission to watch the 90-minute film, which will screen at 6 p.m. This event is open to the public.

A press release stated, "Western New York residents from diverse cultures and backgrounds have come together to help create this groundbreaking documentary. Illustrated by images, music and reflections, individuals and groups display their cultural heritage in dance, song and artifacts.

"Tradition, Trauma, & Tenderness" was executive produced by Valerie Walawender and co-directed by Walawender and cinematographer Alex Simmons - who was also responsible for primary videography, narration, sound, and editing.

The press release noted, "The documentary explores traditions and the universal experience of trauma felt by people and cultures from across the globe. Everyday moments and heart-warming traditions fly across the screen. Images of natural disasters, abuse, disease, genocide, slavery, poverty and war are also shown.

"A major underlying theme of the film is the idea that trauma is a universal experience. It is important to recognize that everyone is affected by various forms of trauma in their personal or collective history. Local people and contemporary events, as well as people from a wide variety of historical circumstances, are depicted.

"But the story does not stop there.

"Individuals share how their close family connections, community support and traditions help them survive and carry on in a spirit of hope."

Psychologist Darryl Tonemah, Ph.D. and neuroscientist Audrey Hager, Ph.D., explain "how the passing on of traditions in tender, nurturing environments can contribute to individual healing and the prevention of trauma."

Walawender will be available an answer questions after the film.

This project was funded by Arts Services Inc. and Northern Chautauqua Community Foundation.
