

VETERANS DAY 2023: A special anniversary

BY GARY ZANARDI

Past Commander, Youngstown VFW Post 313

An anniversary is a date when we remember a specific event in time. It can be a joyous memory such as a wedding anniversary.

Historians have a habit of chronicling these events that cause us to pause for just a moment to remember something that changed the direction of the nation. Every year, we remember 9-11 (Sept. 11, 2001, for those under 30). We also remember Dec. 7, 1941, when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor initiating the U.S. entry in World War II: the "day that will live in infamy." Though as time passes, there seems to be a collective dimming of that memory, as is the case with almost all events.

So what anniversaries are relevant for the year 2023? Anniversaries in denominations of five or 10 years seem popular: your 10-year high school reunion or 25-year wedding anniversary, for example. On a more somber note – one that certainly changed the direction and mentality of our nation – is the 60-year anniversary of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy (Nov. 22, 1963).

Of particular note for veterans and their families would be the 20-year anniversary of the Iraq War (March 20, 2003). Between 2003 and 2014, there were 4,431 U.S. service members killed in action in Iraq. This is also 40-year anniversary of the Beirut bombing (Oct. 23, 1984), which was the bloodiest single day in U.S. Marine Corps history since the World War II battle for Iwo Jima (death toll: 220 Marines, 18 Naval personnel, three Army personnel and 58 French Army paratroopers). It is also the 70-year anniversary of the cease-fire in the Korean War (July 27, 1953). Total K.I.A. in the Korean War (1950-53) was 36,634.

It appears that every generation has to pay its price in blood for the nation's freedom.

What about that 50-year anniversary? That golden wedding anniversary – that special anniversary. Perhaps only for Vietnam vets and some astute historians, 2023 is the 50-year anniversary of the cease-fire for the Vietnam War (Jan. 27, 1973). The agreement was reached between the U.S.; its ally, the Republic of Vietnam (South Vietnam); and their opposition, the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (Communist North Vietnam and their ally, the National Liberation Front (NLF), better known as the Viet Cong – acronym for Vietnamese communist guerillas).

The cease-fire (known officially as the Paris Peace Accords) called for the withdrawal of the remaining 12,000-plus U.S. combat troops from South Vietnam with the remaining three combatant military forces holding in place. This, of course, was ultimately violated by the North Vietnamese and the NLF who, in 1975, launched a full-scale offensive and conquered all of South Vietnam. This accomplished the unification of the country under the communist leadership in Hanoi (then the capital of North Vietnam).

Nevertheless, the key component of the cease-fire agreement for the U.S. was the return of all prisoners of war being held in North Vietnam, most of whom were at the notorious Hanoi Hilton. Between Feb. 12 and March 29, 1973, 591 American POWs were released by the North Vietnamese. These prisoners were almost exclusively pilots and aircrews that had been shot down over North Vietnam between August 1964 and January 1973.

Some of the most high-profile POWs included John S. McCain, who served as a U.S. senator from Arizona (1987 until his death in 2018). He also ran as the Republican nominee for president in 2008. Also of note is Jeremiah A. Denton
