

Lewiston Artisan Farmers Market moves indoors for winter

The Lewiston Artisan Farmers Market made its debut at First Presbyterian Church on Saturday, showcasing many of the vendors typically found at Academy Park in summertime. It will continue at this location throughout the winter, with the next market set for 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 11.

On that day, a nonperishable food drive will be held to collect items for those in need at Thanksgiving. Three donated items will net the giver a cup of hot cocoa. Ten items will earn a beverage and market sticker.

Patrons can park and use the back entrance at 505 Cayuga St. For additional dates and more information, visit <https://www.facebook.com/lewisartonartisanmarket>.

Musician applications available for 2024 Jazz Festival

The Northwest Jazz Festival has begun preparations for the 2024 event taking place in the Village of Lewiston on Friday and Saturday, Aug. 23-24. The board of directors will continue to meet each month in preparation of the festival to plan logistics, musician scheduling, sponsorship, marketing and strategic planning. The musician application process is now open for consideration to perform at next year's festival. All interested musicians performing groups must apply online at www.LewistonJazz.com through an application process. The board of directors receives nearly 100 applicants each year. Music Director Tony Zambito reviews them, alongside the board, to determine who will perform at the festival. There are approximately 30 performance slots available for the two-day festival. Applications will be accepted through January 2024. For more, visit www.lewistonjazz.com.

Registration open for household hazardous waste collection event in NT

Niagara County Legislator Randy Bradt announced registration is open for the county's next household hazardous waste (HHW) collection event, which will be held Saturday, Nov. 4, in North Tonawanda. The county will also be offering paper shredding. The event is open to all Niagara County residents, but people must register in advance. Bradt said the event will be held from 9 a.m. to noon at the North Tonawanda Department of Public Works located at 758 Erie Ave. Registration can be done by going to www.rethinkyourwaste.com/ events and scrolling down to the N.T. event. There is also a list of items that will be accepted for recycling posted to that website. "This is Niagara County's last collection event of the year so, if you have any leftover pool chemicals, pesticides or other items you want to dispose of, this is the time to do it," Bradt said. "In addition, we will once again be offering paper shredding, which has proven to be very popular with residents."

Niagara County Environmental Coordinator Dawn Timm said that, in the 10-plus years the HHW program has been operating, close to 1 million pounds of harmful products have been removed from Niagara County homes. "This has been our most successful year ever, as we have seen a record number of people attending our events to dispose of paint, household chemicals and paper," Timm said. "We are already working on the calendar of events for 2024."

Rain doesn't scare 'Trick or Treat on Center Street' crowds

Dreary weather on Sunday might've put a fright in the hearts of Lewiston merchants, but it actually served as an ideal backdrop for the annual "Trick or Treat on Center Street." With the roadway closed, more children came out to collect candy and show off their stellar Halloween costumes.

The sidewalks, likewise, were crowded as families popped into stores and stood to watch performances from Adell's School of Dance, Lewiston Dance and Janet Dunstan's Dance Academy. Over at the Red Brick Municipal Building on North Fourth Street, the Recreation Department hosted a "Haunted Hallway" and a "Skeleton Walk" scavenger hunt in Marilyn Tooley Park. Later on, "The Salem Sisters" stopped by for stories, photos and a little hocus pocus. See more photos online at www.wnypapers.com.

SPECIAL HOLIDAY SHOPPING PREVIEW

"Holiday Shopping Kickoff - Lewiston Style" is set for 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 4.

"What that day is all about is it's a kickoff to the holiday season, to really get the shoppers out there seeing what we have as small businesses, and shopping small," Inspirations on Canvas owner/artist Kathy Pignatora said. "There's a lot of events over the holidays. And so, we've had this now for a few years. It's been really successful - very similar to a 'shop small' event with sales, goodies."

She added, "If you enjoy getting some deals; if you want to start shopping early; that's a great opportunity to do that - and supporting Lewiston and all of our great businesses here on Center."

More details can be found on the Lewiston Business Group Facebook page under "Holiday Shopping Kickoff - Lewiston Style."
