Fashion Outlets holiday activities

Fashion Outlets of Niagara Falls USA (1900 Military Road) welcomes the holiday season with a true in-person shopping experience featuring family-friendly activities, charity partner engagements, and shopping deals with the top brands.

"Fashion Outlets is working with various partners to help make the holiday season festive for our Western New York community," said Susie Swiatkowski, marketing manager. "In addition to our charitable and family activities, our mall features more than 120 outlet brands, many that are unique in our area."

Santa Claus returns to the Fashion Outlets for holiday photos Dec. 1-24. Guests are encouraged to prebook their visit at FashionOutletsNiagara.com/SantaPhotos.

Other holiday activities include:

•"Doughnuts With Santa," a charity event for families with young children, from 9-11 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 2, inside the Food Court. There is a suggested donation of $5 cash per person, benefiting the Niagara Falls Firefighters Christmas Toy Fund. Space is limited to 100 guests, while supplies last. Sponsored by Dunkin'.

•Santa Cares, an inclusive, sensory-friendly visit with Santa specifically designed for families with special needs, will be held from 10:30-11:30 a.m. Sunday, Dec. 3. Reservations are recommended by visiting www.fashion-outletsniagara.com/Events/SantaCares2023.

•Pet lovers may also bring their furry friends to take photos with Santa on "Pet Nights," from 4-7p.m. Dec. 5, 12 and 19.

•Fashion Outlets is hosting its "Holiday Music Showcase," featuring music by the Lewiston-Porter string ensemble, from 6-7 p.m. Dec. 7 and 14; and the Niagara Falls High School chorus from 12:30-1:30 p.m. Dec. 20.

•In addition, the Fashion Outlets is partnering with the Salvation Army to host its "Angel Tree," running now through Dec. 15. Guests can "adopt" a child by taking a tag off the tree in the mall's Center Court area, and purchase what is on their wish list.

The mall is also partnering with Community Missions of the Niagara Frontier to host the "Holiday Hope" donation drive, collecting winter clothing, toys, nonperishable food items and more, through Dec. 15. Donations may be dropped off at the Coach store, closest to entrance 1.

New commodore at Youngstown Yacht Club

The Youngstown Yacht Club has named Charles Kegler Sr. as its 74th commodore to lead the organization. Kegler is taking over the leadership role following a two-year commitment from Past Commodore Adam Burns.

A press release noted, "Serving on the board of directors for the past three years, Charlie has spearheaded and sat on various committees at the club since joining the sailing organization in 2018 with his son, Charlie Jr. Both Charlie and his son enjoy racing competitively on J111 sailboats and cherish their time on the water together on their Bristol 32, Charlie2."

Kegler said, "Charlie Jr. and I didn't just join a yacht club, we became members to an exhilarating lifestyle and hobby, and are part of an amazing sailing committee and family. Whether we are enjoying a lovely dinner on a Friday evening with friends, or making a downwind run on race night, Youngstown Yacht Club has a little bit of everything for everyone."

The press release added, "With nearly 100 years of tradition and legacy, the Youngstown Yacht Club has much to offer current and prospective members of all ages and sailing experience, such as weeknight competitive racing, regattas, social sailing for inquiring and newer members, adult and junior sailing lessons, community boat club (pontoon, kayaks, keel boats and paddle boards), special events, and a full restaurant and bar. In addition, the club's patio, lawn and fire pit provides front-row seats to some of Western New York's most stunning sunsets."
