per amphitheater entrance gate. The Artpark lower box office, located off South Fourth Street, is closed until further notice due to construction on the Artpark grounds. Visit artpark.net for more information.

"I think it's interesting as an artist or as a human for that matter, to be able to go back and look at a postcard of a time in your life and reflect on it," McLachlan said. "I think this tour is going to be a real walk down memory lane for me, and I'm hoping that my audience, many of whom have been with me for 30 years, will also be able to go back in time with me."

The summer tour celebrates McLachlan's highly acclaimed third studio album, "Fumbling Towards Ecstasy," which first released Oct. 22, 1993, via Le Studio. The album quickly topped the charts in Canada and went certified Platinum within a few weeks. It has sold more than 3 million copies worldwide to date. Hit singles include "Possession," "Hold On," "Ice Cream," and "Good Enough," among others.

The 30th anniversary tour will see McLachlan playing the beloved album in its entirety along with some of her most celebrated songs in iconic venues across North America, including the Hollywood Bowl in Los Angeles; Red Rocks Amphitheatre in Morrison, Colorado; and Radio City Music Hall in New York City. $1 per ticket will be donated to the nonprofit Sarah McLachlan School of Music. The school provides music instruction at no cost to children and youth facing barriers to access. Visit www.sarahschoolofmusic.com.
