Geissler honored by Tuscarora Nation

Lewiston resident Susan Geissler was honored Tuesday by the Tuscarora Nation during the 210th anniversary commemoration of the Tuscarora Heroes.

Geissler was the sculptress of the "Tuscarora Heroes" monument and is acclaimed as one of the nation's top portrait and tableau artists. She was presented a replica wampum bracelet by Chief Tom Jonathan and Tuscarora Council member Neil Patterson Sr.

The monument, located at Portage Road and Center Street, was the largest War of 1812 bi-centennial project in the U.S., and stands as a testament of thanksgiving and gratitude to the Tuscarora Nation for saving the lives of Lewiston residents during the British attack on Dec. 19, 1813.

About a dozen Lewiston citizens were killed. More would have been killed had it not been for the Tuscaroras intervening and buying more time for the remaining Lewiston citizens to run for their lives down Ridge Road.

Both the Lewiston and Tuscarora villages were completely destroyed in the conflict.

Dear Carrier,

The newspaper carrier's role is a vital one for it involves direct service to the public in the delivery of our product. Without a first rate delivery service all the other jobs that go into making the newspaper are incidental. We can gather the news, write it, take pictures and print it, but only you the carriers, travel through rain, sleet and snow to make sure the readers realize the effort of that work. It is a big responsibility and we depend on you not to let us down. Your dedication and hard work has earned you the gratitude and admiration of all of us at Niagara Frontier Publications and the appreciation of our readers.

Thank you for a job well done!
 From the NFP Staff

Tis the season for giving, please don't forget your carrier.
Wishing you all the Joys of the Holiday Season!
