

Apple Granny looks for fifth 'Best Fish Fry' title this spring

ADVERTORIAL

Apple Granny is a four-time "Best Fish Fry" winner for a reason. Well, several reasons, actually.

- Large quantities of fresh, flakey, tender fish, coated in a crisp batter and always cooked to perfection.

- Ample side dishes.

- A veteran kitchen staff and dedicated owners who are experts in quality and consistency.

Though fish fry lines can be seen at the bar and around the block, the wait is worth it. Customers have told The Tribune/Sentinel, "If you've ever had it ... you know! It's incredible!" And "Best fish fry in town. Always fresh. Large portions. Never a disappointment."

The restaurant menu describes "Granny's Famous Beer Battered Fish Fry Special" as, "Moist and flakey fresh haddock on the inside, crisp and delicious beer batter on the outside. It's quite simply one of the best you'll ever experience. Served with French fries and Cole slaw."

Various elements go into making a winning fish fry – from the cut and choice of the pieces, to the seasonings and coatings, to the cook time and delivery speed. At Apple Granny, every portion of fish is inspected, certified top quality, and then prepared according to a tried-and-true recipe.

Fans are voting for Apple Granny in NFP's annual "Best Fish Fry" contest. The eatery is looking for its record fifth title.

In addition to its award-winning beer-battered fish, Apple Granny offers an assortment of seafood options throughout the week, plus a year-round Friday fish fry.

Apple Granny Restaurant is located at 433 Center St., Lewiston. Visit <http://applegranny.com/> or call 716-754-2028.
