Lilly running for Lewiston Town Board

Submitted by Ed Lilly

Ed Lilly is running for Town of Lewiston councilman in the Republican primary, which will take place from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m. Tuesday, June 27.

Lilly has been a businessman for 35 years, he is pro-Second Amendment, and he is a conservative Republican.

Lilly said he would defend the taxpayers.

"Everyone knows that politicians are not doing right by the taxpayers," he said. "Politicians are puppets for the politicians that pay for campaigns. I am the only self-funded candidate and do not owe any return favors."

Lilly said he would eliminate the recently imposed tax.

"Taxpayers are being forced to pay for a campground," he said. "Maintenance costs and hiring politically connected friends and family to 'run' a campground is a highly expensive waste of your money. It is a taxpayer rip-off."

Lilly said he would return to basic services: fix the roads and other public services to benefit all taxpayers; strengthen police and fire departments to protect all citizens; and demand an exemption from New York state to allow gas appliances.

Bill Burg seeks Lewiston Town Council seat

Submitted by William 'Bill' Burg

I am William "Bill" Burg, a longtime family resident of our town and a passionate advocate in the power of community. With over two decades of experience in community volunteering and a deep understanding of our town's unique challenges, I am dedicated to serving you, my neighbors, as we work together to create a prosperous and inclusive town.

I have an engineering background from General Motors University and Buffalo State, managed regional accounts for a national building products company, and in 2012 started Greater Niagara Building Center, serving our local communities with integrity and fairness.

My mission is to foster a transparent, accountable and inclusive government that serves the needs and aspirations of every citizen. I believe in fairness, integrity and collaboration, and I am committed to working tirelessly to ensure that our town becomes a place where everyone can thrive. I aim to protect the Lewiston taxpayers with fiscal responsibility, while preserving the integrity and individuality of the village and Sanborn.

As a former member of the ZBA and current chairperson of the Town of Lewiston Planning Board, I promote accountable and sensible development, implementing rational green policies, as well as to continue the great work of our current Town Board on preserving our comprehensive plan and enhancing our infrastructure and natural beauty.

I have served and chaired on a dozen boards. I understand how boards function and, as a business owner, I understand taxes, budgets, and the needs of small businesses in our community.

Together, we can achieve remarkable things for our town. I invite you to join me in this endeavor by volunteering, spreading the word about our campaign, and sharing your thoughts and concerns. Together, let's build a Lewiston we can all be proud to call home.

I would look forward to working with our supervisor, Steve Broderick; our incumbent board members, Jason Meyers, Rob Morreale and John Jacoby; and I will do my level best to pick up the mantle of hard work and common sense from our retiring councilman, Bill Geiben.

I hope I can count on your support and vote in the upcoming primary on June 27, and the general election on Nov. 7. I thank you for your consideration.

I am the endorsed Republican and Conservative party candidate.

Ransomville celebrated

The annual Ransomville Flag Day Parade and Community Faire last Saturday in the hamlet was among the largest ever recorded. The parade featured flags everywhere, marching bands, military vehicles of all types, floats, tractors and more.

The Community Faire celebrated the 100th anniversary of the Ransomville Free Library. Among the many happenings were vendors of all sorts, the Ransomville Garden Club plant sale, foods, music, tractor displays, parachutists from Skydive The Falls, K-9 demonstrations, and performances by Aerial Arts of Rochester. It offered fun for all members of the family. (Photos by Wayne Peters)
