A plethora of vendors lined Center Street.

The Plant Shack is open year-round with great greenery.

The Lewiston Garden Club hosted its annual GardenFest over the June 17-18 weekend, welcoming plant and gardening enthusiasts from across Western New York for two days of displays, tips, talks and seasonal surprises. Following five days of rain, both Saturday and Sunday were warm and dry, resulting in strong attendance – crowds, in fact, began forming before the event technically was underway.

Proceeds from the Lewiston GardenFest benefit beautification and scholarship programs. (Photos by Joshua Maloni; see more at www.wnypapers.com.)
