

New local pizza line at DiMino's Tops

Vinnie's Minis personal pizza is the latest local product available to purchase at DiMino's Lewiston Tops. Cary Odonoghue and VJ McConeghy run the company. A press release noted, "We sell Danish-style pizzas freshly made at our bakery." Right now, pizza flavors at Tops include old-fashioned, margherita and veggie. Vinnie's Minis held a promotional event Saturday at Tops.

Sanborn-Lewiston Farm Museum Festival

Saturday, July 22 & Sunday, July 23

Tractors, music and heritage

Another fun community event returning following cancellations attributed to the COVID-19 pandemic, organizers said many of the festival's attractions of years' past will again be on site. Included are antique tractors, tractor parades, artisans, a flea market, craft show and bake sale. Also, foods, music, a basket auction, produce vendors, a host of kids activities, visits from Wild Critters and plenty of Farm Museum exhibits.

musical and dance performances in the morning; a fife and drum performance from noon to 1 p.m.; children's activities from noon to 3 p.m.; the tractor parade at 2 p.m.; and a performance of the Parkside Brass Quartet from 2:30-3:30 p.m.

That's not all. Also expected are performances by the Native American Niagara River Dancers, plus a Volkswagen car show on Saturday, and an "All-Classic Car Cruise" on Sunday.

Sunday activities kick off with a French toast breakfast from 8-11 a.m.; the Niagara River Dancers from 11:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.; fife and drum entertainment, plus kids fun starting at noon. Following the 1 p.m. tractor parade, visitors will be able to partake in a make-your-own sundae serving at 1:30 p.m., and enjoy a performance of the Sanborn Fire Co. Band from 2:30-3:30 p.m.

The fun begins at 8 a.m. Saturday with a pancake breakfast served by Town of Lewiston officials. The official festival opening is 10 a.m., and the day continues with a number of activities on the festival grounds, including

The festival continues with basket auction winners announced, and more children's programming running to 3:30 p.m.
