Heart, Love & Soul (HLS) will hold its 18th annual recognition dinner at 5 p.m. Aug. 15 at the Russell J. Salvatore Dining Commons at Niagara University.

A press release noted, "The dinner is an inspiring celebration of HLS's remarkable achievements, as well as an opportunity to acknowledge and appreciate the unwavering support of the organizations and individuals that have played a pivotal role in the success of HLS."

It explained, "Since its inception, HLS has been committed to eradicating hunger and offering comprehensive social services to those in need in Niagara Falls. Through dedicated efforts, passionate volunteers and invaluable partnerships, HLS has touched the lives of countless individuals, families and communities, making a significant and positive impact on the lives of the most vulnerable. The recognition dinner will feature a live auction, a silent local art auction, golden ticket raffle, and more. Auction items include a Josh Allen autographed helmet, suite tickets to a New York Yankees game and Apple AirPods.

Tickets can be purchased at www.heartloveandsoul.org/annualdinner

More About Heart, Love & Soul
 Founded in 1983, Heart, Love & Soul is a food pantry, dining room, and social care provider in the north end of Niagara Falls. With a mission to nourish all in need – body, mind and soul, the organization provides daily hot meals, groceries, community health nursing, case management, and housing and outreach services. The Daybreak Program – the new social care program – offers a single point of access for housing, health and wellness, education, legal and other services.
