

AT THE WHEATFIELD FAMILY PICNIC

STORY AND PHOTOS BY JUSTIN HIGNER

Wheatfield Town Historian

A lot of fun was had by all, at the 43rd annual Wheatfield Family Picnic, held Aug. 6 at Fairmount Park.

The day started with a flag-raising ceremony headed by Supervisor Don MacSwan and Picnic Committee Chairman Mike Zarbo. Catholic and Lutheran worship services were held at 11 a.m.

The event also featured a plant sale by the Wheatfield Garden Club, a car show, games, live music, and food and entertainment for the whole family. There were plenty of activities for the kids, including a magician, pony rides, hayrides, a petting zoo, dunk tank and a rock-climbing wall.

Thanks to all who attended the Wheatfield Family Picnic and who visited our vendors and civic groups, such as the Wheatfield Garden Club, Kiwanis, avian and animal rescue, Adams Volunteer Fire Co., the Republican and Democratic clubs, Bergholz Volunteer Fire Co., Das Haus Museum, historian's tent, Project Future, American Legion Post 145 and various food trucks.
