Benny Benack III, SOMETHING ELSE! to shine on main stage at 2023 Northwest Jazz Festival

Submitted by the Upward Niagara Chamber of Commerce

An exceptional level of talent featuring jazz all-stars and rising stars will grace the stage on Friday, Aug. 25, and Saturday, Aug. 26, at the 2023 Northwest Jazz Festival. Headlining performances include the United States Air Force Rhythm in Blue Band, the Benny Benack III Quartet, and, on Saturday, experience the highly anticipated festival appearance of the supergroup SOMETHING ELSE!

The two-day festival runs from 5:10:30 p.m. Friday, and again from noon to 10:30 p.m. Saturday. Center Street in historic Lewiston will come alive with live music and food/beverage vendors with five stages throughout the festival grounds.

The festival is free to attend (no coolers or carry-ins), with a limited number of tickets available for preferred seating at the main stage. Tickets are $25 each and available online at www.lewistonJazz.com. A limited number of tickets will be available at the festival.

Performances begin with The United States Air Force Heritage of America Band presenting Rhythm in Blue, the unit's dynamic jazz ensemble, at 6 p.m. Friday. This stellar group presents exciting and uplifting music to inspire.

Friday evening showcases rising star jazz trumpeter and vocalist Benny Benack III, along with the talented pianist Emmet Cohen, who headlined the 2022 festival.

On Saturday, SOMETHING ELSE!, an elite gathering of award-winning jazz stars led by saxophonist Vincent Herring, headlines the main stage shows. These world-class musicians are going to captivate you with their unique tribute to the spirit of soul, jazz, and the 1958 Cannonball Adderley classic album of the same name.

The Northwest Jazz Festival has also partnered with Artpark & Company for special performances on Saturday at the Center Street stage, featuring entertainment between performances.

Local food and beverage vendors will line Center Street, with local favorites including Casa Antica, Brickyard Brewing Company and Viola's Submarines.

The festival is free to attend, marinas, and a lot of our people that are leased at the marina seasonally come to the restaurant. We get a lot of bikers that are doing the bike trail along the parkway, and we get a fair amount of senior groups that come via bus. So, we have a wonderful draw. We have water, we have car, we have boat, we have bicycle, we have walking."

"If there's a wait, we tell them at the counter there is a wait," she said. "Our kitchen is small. We can only handle so many. We cook to order. And when that food is put on the tray, one of the duties of the counter girl who's delivering that tray is to make sure everything is correct. The proper condiments are on the hamburger. Proper fries are there. It is her duty to make sure that tray goes out of the kitchen as the order was placed, and the serving should look appealing."

Lumberjack's also won the Best Hamburger and Best Fries food contest categories.

"We make the french fries daily. We cut our own french fries manually with this little manual machine," Tallichet said. "They're curly-Q french fries, and seasoned. We serve them seasoned. If they don't want them seasoned, all they have to do is request that and say not be seasoned."

"The hamburgers, again, are patted daily. We are not a fast-food operation. Our kitchen is small, and we aim to please – and we cook per order."

She noted, "There's basically just the basic hamburger with lettuce and tomato and onion; cheeseburger; or we can elaborate with chili; or we can do a protein burger, which is served on a bed of lettuce for those who are watching their carbs."

Lumberjack's menu features an assortment of Western New

To date, 2023 has been "busy, hectic and lovely," she emphasized.
