WNY Fishing and Outdoor Report

Fall salmon staging season nears

Salmon in the river during the spawn run. (Walleye will be one of species in the "Fish Odyssey." Staging salmon from Lake Ontario. (Submitted photos)

BY CAPT. FRANK CAMPBELL
Director of Outdoor Promotions for Destination Niagara USA

I am not wishing away summer by any means but, as August pushes forward, we are getting closer to the return of the king salmon to their native rivers if they are wild fish, or the tributaries where they are planted if stocked.

The kings will stage in areas in the lake prior to making their run into the rivers where the spawning process will continue until the female lays her eggs and the male fertilizes them; soon after, the salmon will die. The staging or schooling of Lake Ontario salmon occurs around mid-August and can last a month or so, as the fish will enter the tributaries in waves. They will spend about two to four weeks in the rivers to complete the spawning process.

As anglers, the staging process is when we seek out the kings in a shallower water environment, as often the salmon are at the biggest point of their lifetime. The New York state record king salmon of 47 pounds, 13 ounces, was caught out of the Salmon River in Pulaski during early September in 1991 – just to give you a reference of potential size.

As you can imagine, August is a great time to get out on Lake Ontario to target salmon and possibility catch your personal best of this species. Whether you book a charter with a local charter captain or take your personal boat, don't forget to join one of the contests that are taking place later in August.

For trout and salmon specific competitions, it's hard to beat the Fall Lake Ontario Counties Derby, which takes place from Aug. 18 through Sept. 4. The LOC, as it's referred to by the fishing community, offers cash prizes for the heaviest fish in the categories of salmon, brown trout and steelhead. A total in excess of $67,000 will be up for grabs. Each division will pay back to 20th place, with the grand prize of $25,000 going to SEE GET OUT, continued on Page 15
