

Seaman sworn into office

Brian D. Seaman, with wife Donna by his side, was sworn in as Niagara County district attorney on Wednesday, Dec. 30. The oath of office was conducted by Niagara County Court Judge Matthew J. Murphy III – who himself served as Niagara County DA for 16 years, and hired Seaman as an assistant DA in 2006.

“Judge Murphy gave me my first opportunity to serve as a prosecutor here in the community where I grew up. It was an honor for me to have him administer my oath to serve in the office he occupied for so many years,” Seaman said.

Seaman went on to say, “2020 has been a very difficult year for everyone, including law enforcement. Crime, especially violent crime, is occurring at an alarming rate. I look forward to the challenge of serving as district attorney. Fighting for justice for crime victims and their families is never an easy task, but I take office knowing that I have a dedicated and experienced staff at the DA’s office, as well as in our county’s law enforcement agencies, to work with to meet the challenge. I would also like to thank the voters of Niagara County for putting their trust in me, and to everyone who helped me get here.

“There are many, many people that I would have liked to invite to this swearing in, but I couldn’t because of the ongoing pandemic and the related restrictions. Please know how much I appreciate you all.”

Seaman’s term began Jan. 1.

Filicetti, NCSO administrators take oaths

To open 2021, a small, private ceremony was held this past week at the Niagara County Sheriff’s Office to swear Sheriff Michael J. Filicetti and his administrative team into office.

Filicetti began his four-year term as the 57th sheriff of Niagara County on Jan. 1. Under-sheriff Michael P. Dunn, Chief Deputy Patrick G. Weidel, Chief Deputy Aaron C. Schultz and Chief Jail Administrator Daniel N. Greenwald all took their oaths of office alongside Filicetti.

the strong support of our residents. I look forward to continuing the great record of public safety here at the Sheriff’s Office, and leading the men and women who serve honorably. I will work hard every day to ensure the residents of Niagara County feel safe and protected. Lastly, it was important to me that my administrative team took their oath along with me. I count on these individuals every day to help me get the job done,” Filicetti said.

“It was humbling to receive

Dear Carrier,
The newspaper carrier’s role is a vital one because it involves direct service to the public in the delivery of our product. Without a first-rate delivery service, all the other jobs that go into making the newspaper are incidental. We can gather the news, write it, take pictures and print it, but only you, the carriers, travel through rain, sleet and snow to make sure the readers realize the effort of that work. It is a big responsibility and we depend on you to not let us down. Your dedication and hard work have earned you the gratitude and admiration of all of us at Niagara Frontier Publications and the appreciation of our readers.

Thank you for a job well done!
From the NFP Staff.

Wishing you all the joys of the Holiday Season & a prosperous New Year!
