

Northwest Jazz Festival will resume in 2021

The Northwest Jazz Festival of Historic Lewiston, NY announced Monday this year's event was canceled.

Board of Directors Chairman George Osborne said, "It is with much regret that we have been forced to make the decision to cancel the festival in the best interests of the health and safety of the musicians, the staff, the thousands of attendees and the entire Village of Lewiston. This event is among the highlight of festivals each summer in Western New York and I am certain that many of you will share my disappointment, but with the uncertainty if mass gatherings of over 10,000 will even be allowed in New York state by the end of September and with the long-term future of the festival at stake, the board of directors had no choice but to make this decision now."

Speaking on behalf of Northwest Bank, the festival's naming sponsor, Western New York President Richard Hamister said, "All of us at Northwest look forward to the Jazz Festival in Historic Lewiston and the opportunity to enjoy performances from talented jazz musicians from around the world. Ultimately, though, the safety of our families, friends and neighbors is what's most important. We wish everyone a healthy summer as we count down the days until the 2021 event."

The many patrons and sponsors who have already paid for their support of the 2020 Jazz Festival will be offered the opportunity to convert the payment to a contribution, move their payment to the 2021 event, or request a refund.

Information on how to follow up on these options will be forthcoming from the Niagara River Region Chamber of Commerce, which manages the festival.

Upcoming events and fundraising opportunities can be found online at www.LewistonJazz.com.

Plans will continue to evolve for the 2021 festival in accordance with guidance going forward for large events.

Tuscarora Nation Picnic canceled

The 175th annual Tuscarora Nation Picnic, which was scheduled for July 10-11, has been canceled for this year. The summer picnic highlights Native American culture and traditions and includes dance, music and native foods.

The event chairman, Neil Patterson Sr., announced the cancellation and said, "It is with deep regret that we are forced to cancel this year's picnic for safety reasons. The picnic attracts thousands of people from far and wide, and there are times when social distancing would be next to impossible to achieve. The health and safety of our patrons are our top priorities. We hope that medical therapies and vaccines can be developed in the meantime that will enable us to reschedule the picnic for July 2021, so we can continue this longstanding tradition the Tuscaroras have proudly hosted since 1845."
