Kiwanis Club donates to Lewiston DPW

The Kiwanis Club of Lewiston donated more than a dozen food packs to the village's Department of Public Works on Friday. Each kit included a can of soup or ravioli, a reusable bowl, oatmeal, pudding, water and, of course, peaches – all courtesy of Kiwanian Dean Beltrano. In addition, Kiwanian Jan Mathews dropped off a tray of cookies.

Past President Marty Pauly said the club wanted to show appreciation to the DPW for all the work its members put forth for Lewiston – especially during the ongoing pandemic.

Beltrano said he noticed many area donations were going to medical staffs – and rightly so – but that the DPW team also was deserving of a special treat.

Superintendent Larry Wills said the gift was much appreciated.

Food drive for Care-N-Share Food Pantry

The Town of Lewiston Senior Center will hold a food drive from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday, May 30, to benefit the Care-N-Share Food Pantry in Ransomville. The donation drop-off will take place at the Lewiston Senior Center, 4361 Lower River Road, to assist the pantry in restocking its shelves.

According to food pantry officials, over past months the coronavirus pandemic has depleted the Care-N-Share Food Pantry and it has been difficult to fill the shelves.

Items in need include canned meats, peanut butter, cereal, instant potatoes, rice, powdered milk, canned fruit/vegetables and personal hygiene items.

"All you have to do is pull up and open your car's trunk and volunteers will remove the donated items," said Town of Lewiston Supervisor Steve Broderick. "Everyone will be at a safe distance. Please help if you can. We will be there from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m."

The Care-N-Share Food Pantry is located at 3628 Ransomville Road in Ransomville. For more information, call 791-1268.
